

Jake Keaveny to Speak at PLI's 23rd Annual Institute on Securities Regulation in Europe

Wednesday, March 13, 2024 4:00 AM to Thursday, January 1, 1970 12:00 AM

On March 13, partner Jake Keaveny will lead “Key Issues in the Leveraged Finance Market” panel during Practising Law Institute’s (PLI) 23rd Annual Institute on Securities Regulation in Europe conference. The panel will review important developments in leveraged finance/high yield transactions.

This conference offers a unique focus on the application of U.S. securities law in the UK and EU and features a faculty of leading practitioners, in-house counsel and government regulators who will address recent developments in global capital markets activity and enforcement and offer practical guidance for companies and financial institutions. For more information, please click here.

Attorney

- Jake Keaveny